

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2983 - HB 4087

March 6, 2008

SUMMARY OF BILL: Extends the number of days from 300 to 330 in which a child may be born after the termination of a marriage where the husband can be rebuttably presumed as the father of the child.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

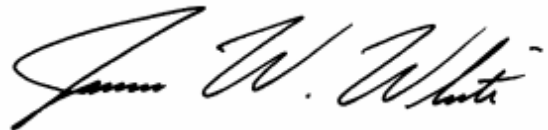

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- The Department of Human Services will need to make minor systems changes to paternity programs which use the number of days in certain child support calculations within the Tennessee Child Support Enforcement System (TCSSES).
- Any cost can be accommodated within existing resources without an increased appropriation or reduced reversion.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
